The property has ample storage. There is a great covered outdoor entertainment area that faces a sunny easterly aspect, as well as a manicured courtyard area with established gardens that are easy care. There are also double gates at the rear which will accommodate access for a van, boat, or trailer. There are no body corporate fees attached to this property and there is space for a small dog or cat.

You would be hard pressed to find a nicer townhouse that excludes quality and space in such a desirable location. The current owner is downsizing and is happy to agree on a flexible settlement period.
