17A Green St, Alstonville

SOLD BY MELANIE STEWART

Situated in an excellent location on a flat allotment is this exclusive home. One of Alstonville's finest and most desirable properties. Cloaked in history, being one of the village's original homesteads from the 1900s and renovated to a very high standard. Modernised with all the creature comforts we desire in modern day living, this home is packed with character and oozes style throughout.

The home is only a short stroll from the village centre, making for easy access to all the town conveniences, local shops, supermarkets, cafes, galleries, restaurants and schools.

The location in town makes this a great place for families and busy professionals to live. Those who desire space will love the big flat block of land and this position will certainly suit those wanting to run a business from home, as there is separate access to one side of the home that incorporates a large room that is this currently used as a large living space, sunroom or rumpus room however it could be used for a home hair dresser, massage therapy or any home business!

Immaculately presented featuring four big bedrooms, a formal living
