There are treed and cleared areas, with abundant natural rainforest, creeks and native flora and fauna. The variety and abundance of wildlife attest to the vendor's dedication to the planting of native tree species. The owners have run horses along with cattle, plus there is plenty of space to grow market gardens and home grown veggies. This is your time to be self sufficient. Numerous creeks and dams provide ample water, both stock and domestic.

A large steel shed (9m x 7m) will suit the tradesman/handyman with more space available if needed.

This property is a hidden gem, while the home requires some renovation it is hard to find these character style homes on rural land so this is a wonderful opportunity to secure a very pretty rural block and charming home at an affordable price.
