"Jill" - Affordable Home with a Big Yard!

This home is beautifully presented inside and out. Situated in a quiet and peaceful location just a short stroll to Alstonville village. This recently renovated home will appeal to retirees, investors or first home buyers that are looking to get into the market.

Set on a generous block of land with a fabulous north facing rear yard this home features three bedrooms, the living room is air conditioned and the kitchen is well set out with all modern conveniences. The home has been decorated and presented in neutral tones with quality fixtures and fittings. There is a separate laundry and a great outdoor entertainment area that is a top place to entertain or relax with friends.

This property is fenced, with room for the family dogs and plenty space for the kids to play freely. The home will appeal to those buyers looking for a smaller, easy care home and gardens, yet will love the convenience to local shopping centres, schools, sporting fields and churches.

Meticulously cared for, there is no need for renovating or updating, making it a very attractive option for an astute investor who is looking for a low maintenance property which will show a excellent return for their
