and hardwood timber floors throughout the home, just to name a few of the delights. All these features enhance the overall appeal and ambience of the home. Everything works in synchronicity and each detail compliments the whole.

The home was built by the current owners and is a quality build. It has been meticulously cared for and maintained and is presented beautifully for market. All bedrooms accommodate a queen size bed with ease, and each room has its own individual personality and charm.

The pièce de résistance is the covered alfresco living area that shares a prized northerly aspect to invite in cooling breezes. This is the ultimate relaxation and entertaining space which overlooks a rural vista and green lush gardens. The double garage has a work shop space and easily accommodates two large vehicles. There is also plenty of space to build a shed or put in a pool.

This property is only a 10-minute drive to Lismore or Alstonville and will appeal to families, professionals and retirees looking to downsize from acreage but not willing to compromise on space and privacy.

The current owners are moving to the coast and are looking for a genuine sale. Hard to find are these small acreage homes with a quality residence. This great property is perfectly positioned with style, space and privacy.
