

"Fleur" - Chic Character Cottage

Just listed is this fully renovated cottage which has a fresh, clean vibe with a mixture of old worlde charm and modern tones throughout. This property will appeal to those seeking a fabulous and funky home to live in!

Set back behind a high picket fence and privacy hedge is this turn of the century original cottage painted outside with neutral white and grey tones. Inside there are timber floors, new paintwork in crisp white, high ceilings and funky furnishings.

The home features a separate air conditioned living room with ample light from large windows, a separate dining room which adjoins a brand new kitchen with new appliances. This area leads out to a large entertainment deck which is a great spot for relaxing and soaking in the majestic mountain views.

There are two good sized bedrooms and a spacious laundry with ample storage. This pretty cottage sits on a large block of land. There is room for a market garden, shed or even a secondary studio (STCA). The property is fully fenced and there is a selection of occasional trees and flower gardens.

This home sits in a great location just an easy drive to downtown Lismore, the University and local shopping centres and schools. Ideally this home will appeal to first home buyers, investors or those looking for a smaller home with a large yard.

There is a lack of homes currently on the market and given the price range this house sits in, we expect a lot of interest. Make sure you are ready with your finance and book a time to view this hot little cutie today with exclusive agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936.
