There are four generous sized bedrooms that are privately set away from the living areas up a few stairs on a higher level. The main is extra-large with a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite and includes access to a large entertainment deck that overlooks the pool. Downstairs is a 5th bedroom with its own toilet, or this space would lend itself to a rumpus/studio/granny flat. This area would ideally suit those looking to accommodate the in-laws, or have a separate guest's space or kid's activity room. In addition to the separate laundry there is also plenty of extra storage cupboards. The double garage is spacious with a big workshop space and provides easy internal access to the home.

Positioned in an elevated location with a desirable north aspect at the rear there is plenty of space and areas to spread out. Adjoining the family room and kitchen is a fabulous covered entertainment area adjacent to the in-ground pool. There is even still plenty of land for the kids to play or have that market garden.

Just a short distance to Lismore and Alstonville this property promises to impress, with a neutral, modern colour scheme, quality fixtures and fittings throughout, great entertaining areas and lots of large open rooms. A perfect outlook on a scale that will simply amaze. The current owners have purchased elsewhere and are ready to sell!
