appliances. There is one bathroom, however plenty of space to add an ensuite off the main bedroom which is of generous proportions and is air conditioned and opens through to the deck through timber French doors.

The gardens are a joyous array of pretty flowering shrubs and trees, cottage gardens along with the occasional fruit tree and well set out market garden . Just a short drive to the business centre of Lismore, university, hospital and easy access to the Village of Alstonville and the coast.

There are only a handful of homes in the dead-end street, making it one of the valleys elite locations to acquire. There are fabulous entertaining areas to the front and rear of the home, a large timber deck that runs across the front that will allow you to soak up the sublime mountain and valley views. There is a wide entertainment deck at the rear, a favourite place to relax with friends or hold a family BBQ.

There is a single carport plus a separate double carport that could easily be converted to a garage along with room to build a shed or pool, or just enjoy the beauty of this unique allotment. Sitting alongside rural land you can enjoy the feel of wide open spaces, watching cows graze and the blissful rural surroundings.
