Connected to town water there is abundant storage, and a well-designed and versatile floor plan that facilitates flexible options and allows for excellent separation of living.

Inside and out, the residence is a testament to detail and seamlessly blends comfort, multiple-functionality and grace; this executive style residence was built and designed for the entertainer who appreciates the finer things in life... and indeed, who doesn't? You will love the outdoor entertainment area that is fabulous for entertaining or hosting family BBQS and special events. There is a shed at the rear which is excellent storage for the garden equipment and the extra boy toys!

The gardens tell a story of their own; they truly have to be inspected to be fully appreciated, you will be dazzled by the vibrant colours, the depth of variety of vegetation, the resident birdlife, and the sheer beauty of mother nature at her most radiant!

Buyers who appreciate and value privacy, serenity, beautiful grounds and convenience must inspect this much loved home and its magical outlook. Located within a fifteen minutes' drive to coast beaches; this is the best of both worlds, an oasis of the highest calibre.

The current owners have purchased their new home and are looking for an immediate sale. Please contact exclusive agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 to arrange a viewing.
