completed by two bedrooms and the main bathroom.

Located downstairs with it's own private entrance is the studio/third bedroom with the second bathroom and a kitchenette. Easily considered a true dual living option, this house provides many options for the astute buyer, including the ability to generate dual incomes if desired.

Arguably the most enticing part of this property has been saved until last..... the stunning garden setting and the inevitable abundance of wildlife it invites, including echidnas and birds too numerous to name. A delightful bush food rainforest section at the rear of the property provides a refreshing shaded area and overlooks low maintenance manicured gardens. If you genuinely appreciate nature you will not be disappointed here.

The owners of this stylish and immaculately presented home have committed elsewhere so come and take a look and, if it ticks all the boxes, present your offer now or you may miss out. Call Robyn Hunt on 0448 448 758 to secure your inspection today.
