dining room and access to the large entertainment deck which is a fabulous place to relax with friends and family, whilst overlooking the pool and spa and across to the mountains.

On this level is three generous bedrooms with built in robes and a three-way bathroom. The main bedroom is large and has lots of cupboard space and air-conditioning and faces a great sunny easterly aspect.

Downstairs is a separate rumpus room, large guests' bedroom, second bathroom, laundry and internal access from a single garage. Lots of extra car accommodation with a tandem triple carport and room for a shed!

There is a separate entrance downstairs, where one could use this space as a separate business area, home office or have a separate granny flat! The home has ample storage and has a lovely feel throughout.

The land is beautifully landscaped, with glorious gardens of established flowering shrubs, trees and a good variety of fruit trees, along with plenty of space for a veggie garden or chook shed.

Town water and solar hot water is included, this home will appeal to families and those looking for a bit of space around them, a real entertainers delight. The kids will love the sparkling inground pool and parents will enjoy relaxing times spent in the spa.

Well priced to meet the market you would be hard pressed finding a home in this range with so many amazing features. Call exclusive agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 to arrange a viewing!
